_	we could locate for him a copy of the Sloyan article on Helms which appeared recently in the Baltimore News American. I suggested to Symington he might also want to check with the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee which I understood had considerable information and the Senator is	25X1A
	Later in the day, I called Kathy Nelson, in the office of Senator
EV4A	Symington, who had been present during our meeting with the Senator and informed her that	25X1A
25X1A	I also gave her references to the Sloyan article and another article by Carl Rowan of ll May 1973 which I thought the Senator might be interested in. I told her I would send her copies of these articles tomorrow morning.
25X1	8. Received a call from Jim Calloway, Counsel,
•	Senate Appropriations Committee, regarding the case of a former Agency employee. I told Calloway that I was sure there was no chance of this man being reemployed by the Agency and I had no precise information on the status of his application for a position on the House Armed Services Committee staff although I understood he was a prime candidate for their current opening.
25X1	9. Received a call from Al Tarabochia, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, who told me a Senator (whose name Jay Sourwine, of the Subcommittee staff, did not reveal to him) had asked for all )5Y1A	information the Subcommittee could give him on Tarabochia	25X1A
	said that everything they had on	25X1 A
	I did not indicate to Tarabochia that I was aware of the fact that Senator Stuart	_0/(1/
	Symington had made the request about to Chairman Eastland earlier in the afternoon.	25X1A
